We are delighted to announce that we have again been recognised as a Leading Firm in Family Law in The Legal 500 2021.

The International Family Law Group LLP is a specialist firm with an emphasis on a conciliatory approach to family matters, which is 'brilliant on international issues'. It is equally adept at advising on financial and on children's matters relating to relationship breakdown.

Clients include ultra-high-net-worth and high-net-worth individuals, among them professionals, entrepreneurs, CEOs, and media, entertainment and sports personalities. Ann Thomas and David Hodson OBE MCI Arb have a wealth of experience in this area.

Helen Blackburn is a cross-border child law specialist and is regularly instructed by the International Child Abduction and Contact Unit in its capacity as the Central Authority in England and Wales to bring proceedings in relation to Child Abduction.
